April, 2010

Dear gospel partners,

The following are some highlights from a very full April:

- We celebrated Easter with our friends at Charity Baptist in Nashville, TN and also enjoyed spending time with some good friends in town.
- The next week some friends introduced us to the folks at Kenwood Baptist in Louisville, KY, where we shared our ministry vision and enjoyed their hospitality.
- Thanks to Vanessa, Bonnie Ruth and I were able to attend Together for the Gospel, which was anything but physical R&R but was very stimulating spiritually and also provided an opportunity to catch up with many old friends.
- We spent the next weekend with one of our supporting churches—Calvary Community in Knoxville, TN—and left very encouraged.
- The next week we travelled via NYC to Boston and learned that travelling via Denver would be both cheaper, faster, and friendlier. Once we arrived, however, we enjoyed the time with our friends at Evangelical Baptist. On the way, we also made a quick stop to see family in Lancaster, PA.

- This past weekend, we attended the spring Bible conference at New Testament Baptist in Syracuse, NY, where I spoke six times on the book of Isaiah. The concentrated time in the Word with the folks here was a great encouragement to me personally, and together we rejoiced that his light of salvation has indeed dawned, and we sought his face for the grace to persevere as we wait for the consummation of the new heavens and earth. Thanks to those of you who prayed for us.
- As the Lord brings us to mind, please do pray for grace as we seek to glorify him in our home—as husband/wife, father/mother, and children—while travelling frequently.

Grace and peace,

Jeremy

Happy birthday, Isa!
